Randy and I wanted to start the year out right. Like so many folks we make new years resolutions and then break them. Some times sooner than we would like to admit. We want to share the love of God, but do it in a new and exciting way, but it's the same story for thousands of years now, so how do we do that? Everyone would do this in their own way, for Randy and I we prayed and wrote a song. We hope that this will encourage you in some way. Don't give up. Happy New Year.

Proverbs 3:21-23 (TLB)

²¹ Have two goals: wisdom—that is, knowing and doing right—and common sense. Don't let them slip away,

²² for they fill you with living energy and bring you honor and respect.

²³ They keep you safe from defeat and disaster and from stumbling off the trail.

Proverbs 3:24 (TLB)

²⁴ With them on guard you can sleep without fear; you need not be afraid of disaster or the plots of wicked men, for the Lord is with you; he protects you.

Numbers 6:12 (TLB)

¹² The days of his vow that were fulfilled before his defilement no longer count. He must begin all over again with a new vow, and must bring a male lamb a year old for a guilt offering.

Ezekiel 45:18 (TLB)

¹⁸ The Lord God says: "On each New Year's Day sacrifice a young bull with no blemishes, to purify the Temple.

Psalms 12:5-6 (TLB)

⁵ The Lord replies, "I will arise and defend the oppressed, the poor, the needy. I will rescue them as they have longed for me to do."

⁶ The Lord's promise is sure. He speaks no careless word; all he says is purest truth, like silver seven times refined.

Psalms 105:8 (TLB)

⁸ Though a thousand generations pass he never forgets his promise, his covenant with Abraham and Isaac
