Jackson only had until 11:30 today. It's good that the Lord had me look up bible verses containing JOY in them. We had decided last time that we would work on writing a worship praise song rather than a story telling Christian song. Big differences. But it went well. We opened in prayer and God did His magic with JOY.

Funny that both Jackson and I went right to the same verses. Out of the whole page of them I had printed out.

Psalm 27:6 (NIV)

<sup>6</sup> Then my head will be exalted above the enemies who surround me; at his tabernacle will I sacrifice with shouts of joy; I will sing and make music to the LORD.

Psalm 40:5-8 (TLB)

<sup>5</sup> O Lord my God, many and many a time you have done great miracles for us, and we are ever in your thoughts. Who else can do such glorious things? No one else can be compared with you. There isn't time to tell of all your wonderful deeds.

<sup>6</sup> It isn't sacrifices and offerings that you really want from your people. Burnt animals bring no special joy to your heart. But you have accepted the offer of my life-long service.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said, "See, I have come, just as all the prophets foretold.

<sup>8</sup> And I delight to do your will, my God, for your law is written upon my heart!"

P.S. I really struggled writing this song. I am so used to telling a story. This song is more repeating style. I wanted more story, but I have to remember that God needs to be glorified and that it's ok to praise Him and not have to feel like I have to tell a story each time.
