Jim was watching t.v. however, I just can't stand t.v. so I decided to look up guitar chords as part of my healing process with my brain healing.

I went on auto chords.com and hit random and it came up with Memories in the key of C. I tried all of them and choose the alternatives for fun. And I learned how to record on my computer also that same night.

I like the little rhyme I have going on, so I practiced it several time and wrote the chords down and worked on the melody first. Then I a couple days later asked the Lord to show me what I should write about.

Some had left a Jesus Listens book by Sarah Young so I will read something now in hopes in hearing from the Lord.

Then I tried recording in BBB but lost the song that I taped, then in December I was trying to make sure I was updated for my songs this year for the 2021/2022 book and I saw it never got taped correctly..

Then I found it again, so I taped it tonight so I can put in book, before I forget it again.
