Randy and I got together today, we prayed and asked God to show us what He wants us to remember. I flipped pages and he stuck his hand in the pages and we read

Philippians 4:4

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

The story line of what we read is to be rejoicing during good times, bad time, trying times, healing times, during work, etc. etc. So we decided to address 3 main issues in today. Happy, Trials and Work. These are areas we ALL can relate to.

Psalms 71:14-21 (TLB)

¹⁴ I will keep on expecting you to help me. I praise you more and more.

¹⁵ I cannot count the times when you have faithfully rescued me from danger. I will tell everyone how good you are, and of your constant, daily care.

¹⁶ I walk in the strength of the Lord God. I tell everyone that you alone are just and good.

¹⁷ O God, you have helped me from my earliest childhood—and I have constantly testified to others of the wonderful things you do.

¹⁹ Your power and goodness, Lord, reach to the highest heavens. You have done such wonderful things. Where is there another God like you?

²⁰ You have let me sink down deep in desperate problems. But you will bring me back to life again, up from the depths of the earth.

²¹ You will give me greater honor than before and turn again and comfort me. ²² I will praise you with music, telling of your faithfulness to all your promises, O Holy One of Israel.

²³ I will shout and sing your praises for redeeming me.

²⁴ I will talk to others all day long about your justice and your goodness. For all who tried to hurt me have been disgraced and dishonored.

Jeremiah 7:23 (NKJV)

²³ But this is what I commanded them, saying, 'Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people. And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well with you.'
