I had been looking for a larger table to replace my 4 smaller tables in the garage area of our home. On November 30th, Robert and I were practicing and Roberto pointed out to me that the one table was really starting to sag. So on Monday after I dropped Jim off to work, I decided to go to all the local furniture stores and second hand shops to find a new table. Jims response was good luck with that. You know how hard it will be to find a table that size for a good price. I said God can do it. I don't need to worry. I just need to get out there and try.

I was on the way back home from getting Jim's battery backup and saw the brightly painted building that Jim and I see each time we go to the dental clinic.

So I decided I had nothing to lose. (I was exhausted).

A young man welcomed me, he already had customers, and the pizza had been just delivered but he was working with a good spirit and was very sincere in helping the other customers. He kindly showed me around after I told him what I was looking for. After some time, I told him, thank you, he said he would take my name and number and if he found something, he would call.

I left the furniture guys store to pick up Jim, then we had dinner and then after getting Jim to his second job that day, I continued my search into the night did not find anything, but trusting God. The next day George called my husband and left word that he thought he had found a table that would work at auction and he might be able to get it for 20.00 and would sell it to us for 40.00.

Needless to say, what a blessing, I went and picked the table up. While there, I met Georges Mom and told her how nice her son was and that it is so rare to meet genuine nice person. Her response was thank you for seeing him for him, most folks judge on appearance.

Which is sad for people to think that way.

I was looking at his personality and Godly humble, kind spirit. So rare in this world.

Well to finish my story, since my husband Jim works 3 part time jobs, I called Roberto Barrera and asked him for some help and he came over to help set the table up and so did our kind neighbor Kenny Henry. Not only did God provide a table, but threw a kind person, George at a good price and provided friends to help me set up the table so Jim was not burdened. God is so good.
