Cheryl Anne Day-Swallow lyrics December 22nd 2015

Lyrics & Music December 27th Blonde/Swallowtail

I was sitting at the table alone. I just wanted some down time to enjoy the Christmas tree. As I sat there, these words came to me.

This year I changed our Christmas tree to include tons of pretty glittery snowflakes. I like snowflakes a lot. Each one is so cool looking and unique.

And of course I like glitter.

So basically this song was inspired by my Christmas tree snowflake ornaments.

God has created so pretty awesome things in nature and snowflakes happen to be one of my favorites.
