Well I am in the back of the van writing songs while we are on our trip. Jim is driving the best he can. The road is so bumpy its making me laugh. I can barely hold on. We are on our way to see Murray, our friend had a stroke. He called 3 times asking us to come. So we are. We look forward to our visit. First stop is to see Robin, my sister. Its going to be a long journey if all the roads are like this. We keep smelling skunk and I think its like laughing gas. We just keep laughing. Oh my we need help.

No scriptures came to mind, as I wrote this song. This is just a silly song, but cute. However, when I got home, I looked up some scriptures. About travel and here is what I found.

Exodus 13:21 (NIV)

21 By day the LORD went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day or night.

1 Corinthians 16:3-4 (TLB)

3 When I come I will send your loving gift with a letter to Jerusalem, to be taken there by trustworthy messengers you yourselves will choose.

4 And if it seems wise for me to go along too, then we can travel together.

Numbers 20:17 (NIV)

17 Please let us pass through your country. We will not go through any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king's highway and not turn to the right or to the left until we have passed through your territory."
