Jackson and I meant on October 10th to work on He is Our God recordings at church. We started talking about writing some thing about Hero Makers, the sermons Pastor Rich has been working on the last couple of weeks. All of a sudden Jackson starts playing and I start singing. We had like 5 minutes left before it was time for bible study. So we taped the 4 liner and said we will work on next week. I asked Pastor Rich for sermons so I could dissect the messages and pull out key points to use for our song. So Sunday after church I started writing the song. Then on Wednesday I look forward to see how Jackson will interpret the song. So we can pull it together.

Matthew 28:16-20 (TLB) Jesus (week 1)

<sup>16</sup> Then the eleven disciples left for Galilee, going to the mountain where Jesus had said they would find him.

<sup>17</sup> There they met him and worshiped him—but some of them weren't sure it really was Jesus!

<sup>18</sup> He told his disciples, "I have been given all authority in heaven and earth.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore go and make disciples in all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,

<sup>20</sup> and then teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you; and be sure of this—that I am with you always, even to the end of the world."
