Pam and I meant at Deb Wolfs, Christian Songwriting group on November 17th, 2018. Deb teamed us up for songwriting because of our talents. Pam's talent is melody. Cheryl Anne's is structure.

So off the hallway we went to pray, talk and brain storm.

We prayed again and then flipped open God's word. Then Pam captured Philippians 1:9. We started to question ourselves what does this mean to us? How can we practice this principle of being loving, pure and clean. We can do this with the Lord's help. We desire to be pure, we need to abide in Gods love and gain discernment by Gods word.

Philippians 1:9-11 (NIV)

9 And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight,

10 so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,

11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:9-11 (TLB)

9 My prayer for you is that you will overflow more and more with love for others, and at the same time keep on growing in spiritual knowledge and insight,

10 for I want you always to see clearly the difference between right and wrong, and to be inwardly clean, no one being able to criticize you from now until our Lord returns.

11 May you always be doing those good, kind things that show you are a child of God, for this will bring much praise and glory to the Lord.
