A few days ago, on April 15th, I was reading God Calling daily readings. And this day just hit me. I kept feeling like God had something to tell me that I could share with others going through rough times.

Saturday Jim and I recorded I am Grateful I am Thankful to put up next week, which gave me some time to start with the new ideas of what I read on the 15th. It was getting late and Jim wanted dinner, so my song flow got interrupted, but the next morning I will start again, my back has been out since March 29th and tonight I can't sit anymore, my back is killing me.

Well that night, super painful, hardly no sleep, so I am guessing that my song is going to impact someone and I should really keep working on it.

Sunday after on line service I started again. Finished putting all the pieces in place and typing up the song, then practiced until about 1:00 pm. My little fingers are worn out now, but I like the message and I pray that it will be a reminder that they can rely on God for everything. He longs to lead us if we allow us to.

Deuteronomy 19:9 (TLB)

⁹ (whether he does this depends on your obedience to all these commandments I am giving you today—loving the Lord your God and walking his paths), then you must designate three additional Cities of Refuge.

Psalms 61:2-5 (TLB)

² For wherever I am, though far away at the ends of the earth, I will cry to you for help. When my heart is faint and overwhelmed, lead me to the mighty, towering Rock of safety.

³ For you are my refuge, a high tower where my enemies can never reach me.

⁴ I shall live forever in your tabernacle; oh, to be safe beneath the shelter of your wings!

⁵ For you have heard my vows, O God, to praise you every day, and you have given me the blessings you reserve for those who reverence your name.
