Monday I prayed all day for our friend Colin. I prayed until 12:00p.m. then I was tired and went to bed and cried myself to sleep. Feeling sorry for myself knowing I would not see Colin again. How selfless of me, since he gets to enjoy heaven and does not have any pain. I should have been happy and I was after I re-adjusted my thinking.

The next day I emailed Donna from our church office and she said Colin went to heaven at 12:12 pm.

Tuesday I started writing this song. Then the day zoomed by.

Wednesday I was at church all day painting with Jackson Rodeffer, Nick Raggo, Debbie Stubbs, then Adrian came. Later on that day I got to see Shelly Cook and she said she was able to help Colin by face timing with his friends and family, which gave him peace and closure before he went to heaven. She was there with him. Which gave her peace also.

Thursday after my polymer clay lesson I had time to reflect and pray more about what I was feeling and what others might be feeling. We are all thinking/feeling different things when we lose someone we love to heaven. But after some time, we all need to re-adjust and focus on the good which is He is in heaven now.

Psalm 139:16 (TLB)

¹⁶ You saw me before I was born and scheduled each day of my life before I began to breathe. Every day was recorded in your book!

Revelation 3:5 (NKJV)

⁵ He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.

Revelation 20:11-12 (TLB)

¹¹ And I saw a great white throne and the one who sat upon it, from whose face the earth and sky fled away, but they found no place to hide.

¹² I saw the dead, great and small, standing before God; and The Books were opened, including the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to the things written in The Books, each according to the deeds he had done.

Revelation 21:3-7 (TLB)

³ I heard a loud shout from the throne saying, "Look, the home of God is now among men, and he will live with them and they will be his people; yes, God himself will be among them.

⁴ He will wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying, nor pain. All of that has gone forever."

⁵ And the one sitting on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new!" And then he said to me, "Write this down, for what I tell you is trustworthy and true:

⁶ It is finished! I am the A and the Z—the Beginning and the End. I will give to the thirsty the springs of the Water of Life—as a gift!

⁷ Everyone who conquers will inherit all these blessings, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

Song: My Friend is in Heaven Now

Dear Paula,

Saying I am sorry that Colin is in heaven now, seems odd.
Not sure that any thing I can say will help or comfort you.
I am happy that Colin is in heaven but at the same time I am sad for you.

I have been praying for some time for both you and Colin.

The Lord gave me this song as I prayed and thought of my friendship with Colin and the friendships he had with others and yourself. Writing songs help me keep things in perspective.

I pray that this song will give you some peace. Or maybe God will use this as a witness to others that do not know the Lord, but knew Colin.

I will continue to pray for you and your family.

Hugs & Blessings,
