I was going to work on practicing He is in heaven now so we could record. But then I started reading from Jesus Calling July 14th and the words “ path I have chosen for you” hit me for a song. Right then and there. With all the pain I have been in the last 3 months I wondered what good is this pain and suffering. But it might be that God wants me to rest. And Glenn and Carol from church suffering, why? They are resting in God also. So many folks are hurt, sick or injured right now, like God wants them to take it easy. But I am guessing its more than that. He wants us to rest in Him but maybe more than that? Is He watching to see if we will continue to praise Him. I hope I can pass this test. Its hard but I can choose to be sad/depressed or happy/ keep busy with what God has in store during this time.

Some of my time was used looking up these unusual chords. I just simply did not know the names. So much to learn, so little time.

Then during Christian Songwriting time Debbie Wolf went over my song so we could find ways to improve and lift it to the next level.

Psalm 37:23-24 (NIV)

23 If the LORD delights in a man's way, he makes his steps firm;

24 though he stumble, he will not fall, for the LORD upholds him with his hand.

Psalm 16:11 (NIV)

11 You have made known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

Psalm 66:8-12 (TLB)

8 Let everyone bless God and sing his praises;

9 for he holds our lives in his hands, and he holds our feet to the path.

10 You have purified us with fire, O Lord, like silver in a crucible.

11 You captured us in your net and laid great burdens on our backs.

12 You sent troops to ride across our broken bodies. We went through fire and flood. But in the end, you brought us into wealth and great abundance.

Psalm 66:16-19 (TLB)

16 Come and hear, all of you who reverence the Lord, and I will tell you what he did for me:

17 For I cried to him for help with praises ready on my tongue.

18 He would not have listened if I had not confessed my sins.

19 But he listened! He heard my prayer! He paid attention to it!

Psalm 66:20 (TLB)

20 Blessed be God, who didn't turn away when I was praying and didn't refuse me his kindness and love.
