(Chorus) Psalm 130-5 wanted to land on word HOPE.

C F

I wait for you Lord. My Soul Waits

Am G

I can rest in your word

C F

I wait for you Lord. My Soul Waits

Am G F Am

In Your word I have Hope I have Hope

Verse 2 Psalm 86:3 merciful

Am                    G                    Am                    Em
People can be so mean It breaks my heart in two
F                    G                    Am Em
Their thoughts are no longer pure
Am                    G                    Am                    Em
Be merciful O my Lord I look to You
F                    G                    Am                    Em
You are my constant friend

Verse 3. Psalm 25:5 lead me teach me

Am                    G                    Am                    Em
Fear and depression the stress is unreal
F                    G                    Am Em
This sinful world is falling apart
Am                    G                    Am                    Em
Lead me and teach me the right way to go
F                    G                    Am Em
For You alone can save me

Chorus x2

Repeat F Am

Can't sleep my back is killing me. So I figured I could get a head start on my new song challenge. There was a challenge to write a song using Psalms and the song needed to be focused on HOPE.

I looked threw Psalms and used some verses about HOPE.

I looked up best BPM for Christian Worship, it said 110, my metronome only has 108 and 112, so I went with 108.

Then I looked up chord progressions for Christian Songs. Found this one. Decided to challenge my self to use that one.

Am G Am Em F G Em then D F Am G like shown on a web site.

I choose this verse for the chorus because the word HOPE as the last word and the challenge was HOPE and it will stick in your last thought which should be HOPE.

Psalm 130:5 (NIV)

5 I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I put my hope.

Psalm 119:114 (TLB)

114 You are my refuge and my shield, and your promises are my only source of hope.

Psalm 86:3 (TLB)

3 Be merciful, O Lord, for I am looking up to you in constant hope.

Psalm 25:4-5 (TLB)

4 Show me the path where I should go, O Lord; point out the right road for me to walk.

5 Lead me; teach me; for you are the God who gives me salvation. I have no hope except in you.
