I was so excited today that Jackson was coming. We prayed and talked about Easter and all the nice things the Lord has done for us. Before Jackson came I started practicing my guitar and found chords I liked in case we started a song, but after prayer Jackson said he would like to just have fun going over the songs we have written this year so far.

So we did and had a great time. Then I had an online class for gardening and then it was time for dinner and then after Jim left for church I took that time working on my thoughts for this song.

I was thinking of all the things I could do, but choose to praise the Lord. I don't want to have regrets for feeling stress doing things, just to do them. I was glad that the Lord had time to help me today do what HE and His plans entailed.

Jeremiah 29:11-13 (NIV)

¹¹ For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

¹² Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you.

¹³ You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

Exodus 16:23 (TLB)

²³ And he told them, "Because the Lord has appointed tomorrow as a day of seriousness and rest, a holy Sabbath to the Lord when we must refrain from doing our daily tasks. So cook as much as you want to today, and keep what is left for tomorrow."

Psalms 74:22 (NKJV)

²² Arise, O God, plead Your own cause; Remember how the foolish man reproaches You daily.

Psalms 71:14-24 (TLB)

¹⁴ I will keep on expecting you to help me. I praise you more and more.

¹⁵ I cannot count the times when you have faithfully rescued me from danger. I will tell everyone how good you are, and of your constant, daily care.

¹⁶ I walk in the strength of the Lord God. I tell everyone that you alone are just and good.

¹⁷ O God, you have helped me from my earliest childhood—and I have constantly testified to others of the wonderful things you do.

¹⁹ Your power and goodness, Lord, reach to the highest heavens. You have done such wonderful things. Where is there another God like you?

²⁰ You have let me sink down deep in desperate problems. But you will bring me back to life again, up from the depths of the earth.

²¹ You will give me greater honor than before and turn again and comfort me.

²² I will praise you with music, telling of your faithfulness to all your promises, O Holy One of Israel.

²³ I will shout and sing your praises for redeeming me.

²⁴ I will talk to others all day long about your justice and your goodness. For all who tried to hurt me have been disgraced and dishonored.
