My friend Randy could not come by today, he is not feeling well. However, I still wanted to write today. So I prayed and questioned myself, what things I am doing this year. Are they for me, or the Lord. Are they the same thing? Are they on track with what the Lord wants for my life?

I am trying to workshops this year to help us with bills and I would like to travel again.

Is this what God wants? Is this what I want? Am I bad to think this way. Who am I serving?

Keeping in mind that the last 4 years, God has provided for us, though all my traumatic brain injury stuff. But if I can do something would that not be better than nothing?

I need to be a good daughter, I need to be a good sister, I need to be a good wife, I need to be a good friend, how do I do all of that and still make some money? What is a good balance? Everything takes your time.

Is posting on Facebook a bad self centered thing? Will it help spread the word about my workshops, what is to much. Should I even do it at all? I don't like bragging, and it seems like that? Today folks use Facebook, not sure what other way to get the word out about workshops. Asking for God to show me what is good for me and pleases Him in the process.

If God wants it to work, then I will see results if not I need to be open to going another direction in the future. So I wrote this song to make sure that I keep my focus and balance in life in 2024 and stay focused on what I would be doing if it was the last day of my life. What is really important?

I don't want making money to be first and for most. I want to have a happy, productive life encouraging others as God has planned.

1 Corinthians 3:13 (TLB)

<sup>13</sup> There is going to come a time of testing at Christ's Judgment Day to see what kind of material each builder has used. Everyone's work will be put through the fire so that all can see whether or not it keeps its value, and what was really accomplished.

Genesis 2:2-3 (NIV)

<sup>2</sup> By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work. <sup>3</sup> And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

2 Peter 1:5 (TLB)

<sup>5</sup> But to obtain these gifts, you need more than faith; you must also work hard to be good, and even that is not enough. For then you must learn to know God better and discover what he wants you to do.

Revelation 22:12-14 (NKJV)

<sup>12</sup> "And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to every one according to his work.

<sup>13</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last."

<sup>14</sup> Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city.
