I am having one of those off days. I wonder if God answers folks. I would love to have a great day. And most days are frustrating, usually with the computer stuff. I am a hands on person not a computer person. Show me some dirt/plants, or crafts/beads.

Some days I just ask why???
But God never answers me. LOL.
Cause He does not have to. LOL

I know in my heart that He allows everything to happen for a reason, even if I don't understand, even if it causes me great pain, sleepless nights, frustration and tons of tears.

I keep pushing on, remembering that all things work together for those who love the Lord. Even if He does not answer me.

Romans 8:28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

But maybe He has answered me, but my ears are not working?
