Its been a while since I wrote a song by myself. And it's a new year with new possibility's. As I prayed today I thought well its time to write again.

So as I thought wow I can write about our new year ahead, what will that look like, what friends will I hang out with, what does the Lord have in store for me?

I prayed about it and then started writing the song.

The bible verse that came to mind was Proverbs 16:1

We can make our plans

But the final outcome is in God's hands.

So no matter what we do and plan God is with us. Which is nice since its been a real tough last 4 years. I hope I passed Gods test, I would hate to have to do that all over again. LOL.

I also want to make sure I continue to pray for my family and friends who are also dealing with struggles. We all go though different test, no persons test is harder than another. They are simply individual test for each person. What might be hard for me, would be easy peasy for someone else and vis versa. But if we keep our eyes on God's plan things will work the way He wants, IF we do what HE ask, not what we want necessarily.
