E                    A
What was He thinking
G                    D
as He came down towards the road ?

E                    A
Palm branches lined the street
G                    D
as the crowds continued to grow

E                    A
He knew what was coming
G    D                    E    ////
just around the bend ~ the end

Chorus

E A E A G D A

E                    A
Christ was an innocent man,
G                    D
His trail was so unfair
E                    A   G                    D
Three days later He raised up into the air
E                    A   G
His loving Father welcomed Him
D                    E    //// with loving arms ~ and rest

Easter was right around the corner. We had planed to go to Solid Grounds Coffee house at the church. And Steve Smith asked for some Easter songs for the open mic night.

I looked though my songs and I could not find anything really gears towards Easter. So I sat down prayed and thought about Easter for me and what it meant to me. This is what came out of mind.

I think that Jesus got the bad part of the deal. He was not treated very good and was mocked like quickly. Just like the world did then they continue to do now. Nothing has really changed.

But I wanted to put myself in His place. What did He think, or see, or experience. He was a person just like us. So while still super human, had emotions.

John 18:28 (TLB)

28 Jesus' trial before Caiaphas ended in the early hours of the morning. Next he was taken to the palace of the Roman governor. His accusers wouldn't go in themselves for that would "defile" them, they said, and they wouldn't be allowed to eat the Passover lamb.

2 Timothy 2:8 (TLB)

8 Don't ever forget the wonderful fact that Jesus Christ was a man, born into King David's family; and that he was God, as shown by the fact that he rose again from the dead.
