I had a very nice day with Polly sewing, yes I sew every few years. LOL. Ran out of gold metallic thread. Then had a nice visit with Bernice from 2:30=5:15. Then dinner and Jim had to clean up his studio for his client that is coming tomorrow. I just wanted to play some music.

So the hand pan drum was there, so I started this movement.

No name came to me that night, but as I tweak and practice it, it will come.

But I like the movement and enjoyed my practice tonight.
