As we wait for the FHA team to come to the house. I have been thinking that we are getting closer to moving. It's a difficult situation. I already miss my family and friends. I am not sure what they are going through but I wanted them to know that I still love them. And some times its hard to say that when your crying. I am not good with goodbyes at all. Even as a child when we traveled I was sensitive to the journey. Yes it would be fun once we arrived to the destination. But tears would come. I wanted to write a song for my family and friends, so they could have comfort.

After all its not goodbye,
its until we meet again.

Its Not Goodbye

[Verse 1]

It's almost time to leave my home, And move along life's journey's road,
I'm Packing up my memories, The only treasures I own,
Leaving a life I've known for all these years,
In every corner, laughter echoes bright and clear, I'll hold you close, even when your not near

[Chorus]

It's not goodbye, its simply until we meet again,
While I am away, I will whisper a prayer,
That you'll feel my presence and know that I care.
I will look at the stars, to heaven above and count my blessings that you are, a part of my life.

[Verse 2]

All the laughter, and every single tear, has been woven into time,
In the fabric of life, your life as been part of mine,
The adventures we have shared, the stories that we told
Will live in the warmth of the memories that we hold.
No matter the distance, it's just for a while,
You've been my foundation, in my life long file, I will carry your spirit in my heart and mind.

[Chorus]

It's not goodbye, its simply until we meet again,
While I am away, I will whisper a prayer,
That you'll feel my presence and know that I care.
I will look at the stars to heaven above And count my blessings that you are a part of my life.

[Bridge]

I have not left yet but miss my family and friends, My heart feels empty as this longing transcends,
It will not be the same without you by my side, I will carry your laughter, and envision your smile,
Through every sunset, across every sea, You're woven through everything inside me,
Memories like jewels that sparkle and shine, Family and friends, forever entwined.

[Chorus]

It's not goodbye, its simply until we meet again,
While I am away, I will whisper a prayer,
That you'll feel my presence and know that I care.
I will look at the stars to heaven above And count my blessings that you are a part of my life.

[Outro]

So hold onto the laughter, the love that we shared,
Until we embrace again, I will always be aware,
As we journey this life, across miles it may bend,
It's not goodbye, it's until we meet again
It's not goodbye, it's until we meet again
